

Integrated online system to allow your customers remote monitoring of their alarm system

Fast access to the latest technology + Improved customer satisfaction + Monthly Revenue nSecur is a new web based software platform allowing Security providers to offer their customer's complete remote access to commercial and residential security installations. nSecur offers comprehensive access from both PCs and Smartphones.

Advantages for you

- Please customers and offer new functionalities
- Improve your Monthly Benefit. The services offered by nSecur establish a monthly revenue source, that will exponentially add to your bottom line, at zero cost to you
- Currently we offer complete support of JR® Security Systems hardware. Other hardware types can easily be added upon request
- nSecur will continually offer you new services as we expand our product offering with our high level of R&D investment
- Comprehensive interface, easily customisable for different Service providers
- Centralised Telephone helpdesk
- In-built module for end customer billing

Advantages for your customers

- Complete Web Access to installations 24x7
- User Friendly Interface, simple to operate. Can be used alongside restrictive LCD Display Control Panels to greatly improve the user experience
- Full remote access and management of the installation including zones and outputs. Email and SMS Alarm sending
- Live feed, capture and indexed storage of security camera images
- Compatible with mobile platforms (touch panels, tablets and smart phones)

Security whenever, wherever

We are an innovative ICT company with many years of international experience in designing tools for monitoring and control.